

March 2011

“The Ides of March”, “In like a lamb, out like a lion”, March winds, signs of spring. Daylight Savings begins March 13. Remember to move your clocks forward 1 hour. I, for one, am glad February is over. I simply hate cold weather. Makes my old bones hurt.

March is also National Women’s History Month. We will be having a great program. Dr Paula Marshall-Gray, from Midland College will be speaking to us on the history of Indian Women. That meeting will be March 9th. Please invite a guest to hear this great program.

As women, we have come along way but we still have a long way to go. Take time to remember our history and the women who struggled so hard to earn the rights and freedoms we have. Also, remember in many countries, women still are oppressed.

Martha Adams and Pam Sanchez are moving right along with the style show. Letters for sponsors have been mailed and they will have flyers and tickets ready this week. Please make plans to attend this fun event. April 13, noon, at the Hilton. The money from this event is used to fund our scholarships. We have some great models lined up and we will have our silent auction benefiting M D Anderson Cancer Research.

Several members (including myself) have had what I call “The Midland Crud” so hope everyone will be on the mend soon.

Thank you all for all your time and hard work.

Please let me know if I can be of any help to any of you.

Hope to see you soon.
