Year End Reports:

Officers and Committee Chairs please get your year end report to our President. (If you are not sure what to write, look at the reports that are on our website under the NEWS tab for examples.)

Wow! What a year! As I have commented so many times before, I am so ever grateful for and thankful to our BPW membership this year. We have accomplished so very much this year. From highly successful fundraisers (thank you Victoria Printz, Shellie Robbins, Stacy Nelson and their NBWW committee and Lisa Mansell and her committee) to our membership goal of 50+ members (thank you Abby Moreau and all our members) to BPW being a viable recognizable women's organization, WE DID IT!

I also want to especially thank 2 of our longest standing members, Mona Bethany and Shirley Harris. They have always been the ones who we could turn to when it came to our BPW history. They have been there to change with the times and if we ever needed to know if BPW had something on hand, from decorations to documents, they could tell you. Their dedication of time, energy and loyalty is something BPW is incredibly grateful for. And neither of them like the limelight so I am sure they are not too excited to have me point them out, but I would be totally remiss if I did not. BPW is indebted to you both.

As I close out this, my 7th year with BPW, I am grateful. I am grateful for all that the offices of Secretary, Director and President as well as numerous chairs and member positions have taught me. And as other organization's board involvement present themselves, I have BPW to thank for all it has taught me that I can carry forth.

Thank you to all our BPW members and board for making this year one for the records books, in our history and in my heart.

Annette Dozier

BPW 2017-2018 President
